TWENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT.

THE Board of Publication has once more arrived at the end of a year of its labours. It now reports to the General Assembly an outline of the progress made, and the results attained, within that year.

In entering upon this report, the Board would very gratefully acknowledge the goodness of God manifested to it in all its history, but never more signally than in the last year or two of its career. The life and health of its members, its officers, its colporteurs, and all connected with it, have been in a marked and merciful manner preserved almost without exception. Passing through a season of almost unexampled commercial depression and wide-spread embarrassments, it has been enabled to go onward in its course of usefulness without serious reverse or disaster. For the first half of the year, it bade fair to make a large advance, in every department of its operations, on those of any former year. Notwithstanding the extremely unpropitious condition of the times during the last half of the year now to be reviewed, its results will compare favourably with those of any year preceding. More new works have been published than in any previous year; nearly as many volumes have been sold; and more have been gratuitously circulated. Although their numbers were of necessity reduced during the last months, yet a larger aggregate number of colporteurs has, during the year, been in the service of the Board than ever before. A larger amount of funds has been contributed by churches, and from a larger number of churches; and numerous testimonies of the most cheering kind have reached the Board from colporteurs, pastors, and others, respecting the usefulness of its publications, in promoting the conversion, sanctification, comfort, and spiritual knowledge of those among whom they have been circulated.

During the past year the Board has continued steadily to aim at the accomplishment of the great object for which it was organized by the General Assembly. In the pursuit of this object, it does not feel that every one of its publications must of necessity present truth which is strictly denominational. On the contrary, there are many of its publications which may be and are read without dissent by Christians of all evangelical denominations. Indeed, the large majority of its issues are such as to be entirely acceptable to all who hold the tenets commonly termed Calvinistic. So far as this is true, the Board is engaged in furnishing a religious literature not merely for our own Church, but for our country and for the world. Yet are there many persons, even in our own Church, who seem to feel that the publications of the Board are wholly and only adapted to foster the spirit of denominationalism, and that if they desire books or tracts adapted to promote a spirit of warm and elevated piety, they must procure them from other, higher, and purer sources. In the name of our beloved Church, and in the name of divine truth itself, the Board protests against a mistake at once so unfounded and so injurious. It is ready to maintain that the works found upon the Board's catalogue are, to say the least, as well adapted to promote a spirit of intelligent, of truly catholic, and warm-hearted piety, as those found upon any catalogue in any country. It is the simple and earnest aim of the Board to present in its issues the whole truth of God's blessed word, in all those aspects and relations, and, as nearly as possible, in the same proportions as does the Bible itself. It proceeds upon the plain principle, that "all Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable."

It holds that whoever, either in the use of the pulpit or the press, culls from the word of God any set of principles, however important in themselves, while he suppresses, leaves out of sight, or unduly subordinates other doctrines or principles just as clearly revealed, casts a slight upon divine wisdom, and so far inflicts an injury on man. In carrying out these principles, the Board desires and aims to furnish to all within its reach, not only a sound and scriptural literature, but one adapted to the necessities and varied tastes of every class. It proffers to the minister of the gospel, to the head of the family, to the Sabbath-school teacher and scholar, to the youth and the adult, to the babe in Christ and the mature Christian, to the prosperous and the afflicted, to the irreligious and the sceptical, words of wisdom and of love, suited to fit each and all for the duties of this life, and for the glories of another. At the same time, no truth that is found stated in the Bible is turned away from or left out of sight, because it may be considered denominational. Loving heartily those noble standards which have been transmitted to our existing Church from her fathers and founders, and fully persuaded that they are built upon the solid rock of God's revealed truth, the Board of Publication openly avows its desire that all men might be brought to concur heartily therewith, and rejoices to embrace every proper opportunity, by its publications, to correct every misrepresentation or mistake concerning those doctrines, and to exhibit and illustrate the truths of those standards, so that they may win the hearts of all men to themselves, and to that free and precious salvation embodied and exhibited therein.

In presenting a report of the results accomplished during the past year, we continue to employ the same division of the matter as in the preceding years, distributing it under the three heads of

I. Production.

II. Distribution; and,

III. Sustentation.

I. THE DEPARTMENT OF PRODUCTION.

The Publishing Agent reports, that during the last year, ending March 31st, there have been published 55 new works, viz.

45 new books, of which have been printed 85,750 copies.

9 new Tracts, - - - - - 24,000 “

The Presbyterian Almanac, - - - 30,000 “

Total number of new publications, - 139,750 “

Reprints of former publications, - 326,750 “

Total number published last year, - 466,500 “

Total number of copies of books and tracts published since the organization of the Board, 6,819,938.

It will be seen from this statement of the Publishing Agent, that the issue of new publications last year exceeded that of the preceding year by 14,500, and is still farther in advance of any other year in the Board's history. It will also be seen that reprints of former publications have been much smaller than during the year preceding. This is explained by the two facts, that large editions of many former publications were issued just before the close of the preceding year, and were still on hand at the beginning of the year now reviewed; and that the commercial embarrassments of the past year prevented those editions from being exhausted as rapidly as would otherwise undoubtedly have been the case.

NEW BOOKS.

Catalogue
No.

452. Gems of Thought; being Moral and Religious Reflections from Matthew Henry and others. Selected by Harrison Hall. 32mo. pp. 128. Gilt edge. Price 25 cents. 2000 copies.

This is a gem of a book, highly suggestive, and admirably fitted in its exterior for the pocket or the work-basket, and in its contents, for the understanding and the heart. Many of these thoughts are from more modern authors than Henry.

453. Our Friends in Heaven; or, the Mutual Recognition of the Redeemed in Glory demonstrated. By the Rev. J. M. Killen, M. A., Comber. 12mo. pp. 225. Price 45 cents. 2000 copies.

This is a book for those whose friends, though once on earth, have now "passed into the heavens." The subject of which it treats must ever prove intensely interesting, so long as death continues to desolate our hearts and homes. The author has constructed a scriptural argument on the subject which leaves nothing to be desired by those who are satisfied with a "Thus saith the Lord."

454. Apples of Gold; or, a Word in Season to Young Men and Women. By Rev. Thomas Brooks, author of the "Mute Christian," &c. 18mo. pp. 288. Price 30 and 35 cents. 1000 copies.

A rich treasury of precious truths, in a quaint, but highly interesting style, with historical illustrations.

455. In Doors and Out of Doors; or, Life among the Children. By Mary McCalla, author of "Pictorial Second Book. Square 16mo. pp. 183. Price 35 and 40 cents. With 5 coloured engravings. 2000 copies.

This will prove to be an agreeable and useful volume for juvenile readers. The chapters are well written and convey much useful religious instruction. The coloured engravings add much to the attractiveness of the book.

456. Our Theology in its Developments. By E. P. Humphrey, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, Louisville, Kentucky. 18mo. pp. 90. Price 15 and 20 cents. 4000 copies.

This book contains a sermon preached before the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in 1852. The object of the writer is to set forth the tendencies of the system of doctrine and polity taught in the Confession of Faith. This he has done in seven particulars, which he has illustrated and enforced in a manner clear, forcible and conclusive. It is well worthy of a careful perusal.

457. Faith, the Principle of Missions. By Thomas Smyth, D. D., of Charleston, S. C. 18mo. pp. 70. Price 15 cents. 3500 copies.

This title exhibits, at a glance, the vast importance of the subject here discussed, and the well-known name of the author will be a sufficient guaranty for the ability and practicalness of the discussion. This little work deserves to be carefully perused by every minister of the gospel, and indeed, by every private Christian too.

458. Aunt Ruth; or Persecuted not Forsaken. By the author of "Ella Clinton." 18mo. pp. 237. Price 30 and 35 cents. With engravings. 2000 copies.

This volume gives much interesting information respecting the persecutions at Madeira, and those more recently experienced by the Madiari family in Italy, and draws therefrom such scriptural lessons as should be impressed upon the minds of the young in view of the facts related.

459. The Little Girl's Treasury of Precious Things. Compiled by Annie Brooks. 18mo. pp. 168. Price 25 and 30 cents. 2000 copies.

What interests one little girl will almost always suit another. The materials for this book, gathered by a little girl in the course of her own reading, will, no doubt, be found interesting to others of her age who give it a perusal.

460. The Little Boy's Treasury of Precious Things. Compiled by Addie. 18mo. pp. 238. Price 30 and 35 cents. With engravings. 2000 copies.

Another little volume compiled for juvenile readers by a little girl of thirteen years, the same from whom recently proceeded the "Select Stories for Little Folks." These short tales have been judiciously selected and arranged, and are well adapted to do good.

461. Marion Harvie, a tale of Persecution in the seventeenth century. By the author of "Ella Clinton," and "Aunt Ruth." 18mo. pp. 279. Price 35 and 40 cents. With several engravings. 2000 copies.

A very interesting narrative, illustrative of the sufferings of the people of God in Scotland in the seventeenth century. It is well adapted to give an insight into the temper and spirit of those who suffered so terribly for Christ's sake, and to make the readers thankfully rejoice that they live at a time and in a country where God has restrained the wrath of the wicked, and given to his people outward peace.

462. The Evening Visit. Written for the Board of Publication. 18mo. pp. 84. Price 15 and 20 cents. 2000 copies.

A little book soon read, but containing matter to be often and much thought of.

463. Meditations in Sickness and Old Age. By Baptist W. Noel, M. A. 18mo. pp. 114. Price 15 and 20 cents. 2000 copies.

This little volume richly deserves the attention of the sick and the aged. It will bring sweet and useful thoughts to their minds, and carry consolation and hope and peace to their hearts. It is now republished by the Board, at the suggestion of a pastor in one of our large cities, who has long circulated it among his people to their great advantage. It discourses in a fresh and vivid style upon heaven, and the needful preparation and evidences for it.

464. The Elect Lady; a Memoir of Mrs. Susan Catharine Bott, of Petersburg, Virginia. By A. B. Van Zandt, D. D., of New York. 18mo. pp. 196. Price 25 and 30 cents. 1000 copies.

This memoir of one who was eminent for her piety and usefulness, will be welcomed by multitudes in Virginia, who have already known or heard of her. And when the book comes to be known throughout the Church, it cannot fail to be welcomed everywhere. It holds up to view a model of Christian energy and humility.

465. The Refuge, by the author of the Guide to Domestic Happiness. 12mo. pp. 227. Price 40 cents. 1000 copies.

This book is designed and admirably adapted to benefit young ladies. It was originally written for the instruction of "Lavinia," a young lady of one of the first families of London, who, possessing a complete education, great personal and mental attractions, and receiving the lowly homage of the fashionable world, found herself still unhappy. By the faithful instructions addressed to her by a Christian friend; and which are contained in the chapters of this book, she was led to "The Refuge," and secured peace and joy in believing on Jesus. The book is commended to all, and especially to all female readers, who have vainly sought for solid happiness in the pleasures of this life, and who are willing to learn how to secure such happiness in looking to Jesus Christ.

466. Daughters at School, instructed in a series of Letters. By the Rev. Rufus W. Baily. 12mo. pp. 252. Price 40 cents. 1000 copies.

It is not often that the anxieties of a parent for his children are more earnestly expressed, or more wisely directed, than in the book before us. In a series of affectionate and faithful letters to his motherless daughters while at a boarding-school, a good man gives most important counsels for their highest good in temporal and spiritual things, for time and for eternity. Every young lady in the forming period of her life, should have this book with her Bible in her closet, and often in her hand, for thoughtful and prayerful reading.

467. Thoughts on Prayer: its duty—its form—its subjects—its encouragements—its blessings. By Jonathan Greenleaf, Pastor of the Wallabout Presbyterian church of Brooklyn, New York. 12mo. pp. 156. Price 35 cents. 1000 copies.

This is the work of a venerable man, whose ministry God has greatly honoured, and who husbands time occasionally, to instruct a larger audience through the press, than can be addressed from the pulpit. The volume will be found replete with rich attractions and instructions, for the spiritually-minded Christian.

468. An Exposition of the Epistle of Saint Paul to the Philippians. By the Rev. James Daillé, Minister of the French Reformed Church at Charenton, A. D. 1639. Translated from the French by the Rev. James Sherman, Minister of Surrey Chapel, London. 8vo. pp. 479. Price $1.15. 500 copies.

This is the republication of a work by the eminent author of "The Use of the Fathers," (already republished by the Board,) and of several other learned volumes. It has heretofore been known to a very limited extent in this country, but will, now that it has been reproduced by the Board, be found to be a volume of very great value and usefulness. Its clear and impressive exhibitions of divine truth cannot be too highly commended both to the clergy and laity. It will, however, be especially invaluable as an addition to the Minister's Library.

470. Lucy Dunlevy, a sketch from real life. By S. S. Egliseau, author of "Lizzie Ferguson," and "Gleanings from Real Life." Square 16mo. pp. 156. Price 30 and 35 cents. 2000 copies.

An interesting volume for juvenile readers. The book is wrought from the simple records of the life of a lovely child, nurtured with tender care, and repaying affection with overflowing affection again, but called to fill an early grave. The author of this volume holds the pen of a graceful and very pleasing writer, and so uses her gifts as to make them a source of blessing to thousands of youthful readers. This book contains many valuable lessons for the young, skilfully interwoven with the simple thread of the biography.

471. The Stray Lamb. Written for the Board. 18mo. pp. 72. Price 15 cents. 2000 copies.

472. The Joy of Morning. Written for the Board. 18mo. pp. 55. Price 15 cents. 2000 copies.

Volumes small in size, but full of instruction for children in the ways of truth and piety.

473. Memoir and Select Remains of the Rev. John Brown, Minister of the Gospel, Haddington. Edited by the Rev. William Brown, M. D. 12mo. pp. 227. Price 40 cents. 1000 copies.

The name of John Brown of Haddington, is a household word in the evangelical family. As a zealous preacher, an able expositor of Scripture, a faithful teacher, and a man of God, the world has not often seen his equal. This volume, prepared by one of his sons, gives an interesting sketch of his character, and a useful selection from his writings.

474. Tales in Rhyme, for Girls. By Old Humphrey, 18mo. pp. 119; with many engravings. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

Here is a volume for our young friends, which contains both "rhyme" and "reason."

475. Annie Lee; a story illustrating the first petition of the Lord's Prayer, "Hallowed be thy name." 18mo. pp. 92. Price 15 and 20 cents. 2000 copies.

476. Blind Ruth; or, How may I do good? Illustrating the second petition of the Lord's Prayer. 18mo. pp. 100. Price 15 and 20 cents. 2000 copies.

477. Hazel Glen; illustrating the third petition of the Lord's Prayer. 18mo. pp. 99. Price 15 and 20 cents. 2000 copies.

478. Christmas Eve; illustrating the fourth petition of the Lord's Prayer. 18mo. pp. 91. Price 15 and 20 cents. 2000 copies.

479. Seventy-times Seven, or the Law of Kindness; illustrating the fifth petition of the Lord's Prayer. 18mo. pp. 120. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

480. Charlie, or a Mother's Influence; illustrating the sixth petition of the Lord's Prayer. 18mo. pp. 123. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

This is a most interesting series of books, which cannot fail of being attractive to the young. Each volume has a beautiful wood-cut.

481. Peace in Death, exemplified in Youthful Believers. By the author of "Little Kadore." 18mo. pp. 60; with an engraving. Price 15 cents. 2000 copies.

This little volume contains an account of four pious children who loved the Saviour, and found him to be a very present help in the time of trouble. It is written in a simple, engaging style, and is not a book to make one sad, but rather sheds a cheerful light on a subject not naturally attractive.

482. Scenes in Chusan, or Missionary Labours by the Way. 18mo. pp. 246; with three spirited engravings. Price 30 and 35 cents. 2000 copies.

Those who have read "Learn to say No," (and those who have not, have a treat in reserve,) will be glad to have another book from the same pen. In the present work, the author gives a series of sketches of scenes and characters, with which he was conversant, during his residence in Chusan, chiefly among the British officers and soldiers stationed at that post.

483. The best Lesson, and the best Time to Learn it. By a Presbyterian Minister. 18mo. pp. 117; with an engraving. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

This book is a series of familiar conversations between Mr. and Mrs. James and their children, on subjects of the highest importance, interspersed with interesting narratives. "The best lesson" is the fear of the Lord, and "the best time to learn it" is childhood. The form into which it is cast, avoids that dry, didactic method, which rather revolts than attracts children. It is from the pen of a gentleman who takes a deep interest in the cause of the preparation of young men for the gospel ministry.

484. Lena Leslie, or the History of an Orphan. By a Lady of Kentucky. 18mo. pp. 108; with an engraving. Price 20 and 25 cents. 2000 copies.

This is a tale of touching interest, and can hardly be read without stirring up the fountains of feeling within. The scene is in the South.

485. The Marrow of Modern Divinity. In two Parts. Part I. The Covenant of Works, and the Covenant of Grace. Part II. An Exposition of the Ten Commandments. By Edward Fisher, A. M. With Notes, by the Rev. Thomas Boston, Minister of the Gospel, Ettrick. 12mo. pp. 370. Price 80 cents. 750 copies.

This is an old book, which has been reproduced by the Presbyterian Board. It is a thorough discussion of the great doctrines of salvation, as opposed to Antinomianism on the one hand, and Arminianism on the other, and is withal eminently practical. The notes of Boston are an invaluable addition to it, illustrating and defending the views of the author.

486. The Stevenson Family; or, Lessons on the Beatitudes. Written for the Board. 18mo. pp. 144. Price 20 and 25 cents. 1000 copies.

These are familiar fireside conversations on a very important and interesting portion of divine truth. Did parents more generally thus fulfil the divine injunction, "Thou shalt talk of these words when thou sittest in thine house," how much more frequent would be the instances of intelligent piety among the children of Christian households!

487. Christ in the Desert; or, The Tempter Foiled. By Rev. Henry Moore Parsons. 18mo. pp. 129. Price 20 and 25 cents. 1000 copies.

This little volume contains, as its title indicates, an exposition of our Saviour's temptation in the wilderness. It will be found sound in doctrine, evangelical in spirit, and every way well adapted both to enlighten and excite pious emotions in the reader. The theme is in itself deeply interesting, and it is handled in a clear and convincing manner. It will be found well worthy of perusal.

- Scripture Baptism, its Mode and Subjects.* By Ashbel G. Fairchild, D. D., author of "The Great Supper." 18mo. pp. 204. Price 25 and 30 cents. 2000 copies.

This work originally appeared in the form of Letters, in the Presbyterian Banner and Advocate, and attracted much attention. Its publication in the present form has been voted by acclamation, as admirably calculated, by its matter, manner, and spirit, to satisfy any unprejudiced inquirer as to the duty and privilege of believing parents to consecrate their children to the Lord.

- The Sailor's Companion; or, Book of Devotions for Seamen in Public and Private.* Board of Publication. 12mo. pp. 263. Price 50 cents. 500 copies.

This is a valuable book, and we fully believe is destined to do a great work among the sailors. It comprehends two parts, the first being made up of forms of public, private, and burial services to be used at sea; of choice Scripture selections, and of thirteen plain and short sermons, chiefly abridged from Burder's "Village Sermons." These are followed by a selection of Psalms and Hymns suited to the use of sailors at sea and on shore. Part second comprehends four several tracts, expositions of Scripture, friendly advice, &c.

Little Bob True, the Driver Boy. By the author of "Stories on the Petitions of the Lord's Prayer." 18mo. pp. 252. Price 30 and 35 cents. With engravings. 1000 copies.

This is a valuable addition to the Sabbath-school Library, from the pen of a lady who has already made valuable contributions to this class of religious literature. It is the history of a canal boy, showing how a poor, destitute orphan can be happy himself, and do good to others when under the influence of true religion.

Pictures of Truth, portrayed in Pleasing Colours. 18mo. pp. 264. Price 30 and 35 cents. With engravings. 1000 copies.

Grains of Gold, suited to enrich Youthful Minds. 18mo. pp. 260. Price 30 and 35 cents. With engravings. 1000 copies.

These two books are compilations made for the Board, containing some of the choicest narratives to be found in our religious periodical literature. They will be found highly attractive to the young.

The Presbyterian Pastor's Catechism. By a member of the Presbytery of Baltimore. Paper cover, 35 pages. Price 3 cents. 2000 copies.

This Catechism is intended by the compiler to be located on the simple and definite line of self-defence. It makes no unfriendly mention of any body of Protestant Christians. It declares what views we entertain. It promises to have a wide circulation, and to do much good, by giving "a reason with meekness," in answer to the captious question, "Why are you a Presbyterian?"

Introduction to the Shorter Catechism. Translated into the Creek language, by Rev. R. M. Loughridge, A. M., and Rev. David Winslett. Second edition, revised and improved. 16mo. pp. 34. 2500 copies.

This little book is printed in the Creek language, at the instance of our missionary brethren, who are labouring among that tribe of our aborigines. It was previously approved by the "Creek Presbytery," and is now issued by the Board in the hope that it may be a useful help to the brethren in their missionary work. The whole edition is presented by the Board of Publication to the Board of Foreign Missions.

The Visitor's Questions. By the Rev. J. E. Rockwell, Editor of the Presbyterian Sabbath-school Visitor. 18mo. pp. 80. Price 10 cents. 3000 copies.

These Questions have been selected and revised by the author from the Sabbath-school Visitor, for which they were originally prepared, and in which they have appeared from time to time, for some years past. This has been done in compliance with the often expressed wish of Sabbath-school teachers, and others who have found them useful and interesting to their children. The Questions are without answers, and embrace a great variety of subjects—Bible history, doctrines, geography, customs, &c., with personal and practical applications. A specimen copy will be sent, post-paid, on payment of the above price.

The Presbyterian Social Psalmist; being an abridgment of the Presbyterian Psalmist. With a selection of Hymns from the Assembly's Collection, adapted to the respective tunes. Designed for use in Family Worship, in the Social Prayer-meeting, and in the Lecture-room. Square 12mo. pp. 261. Price 40 cents. 3000 copies.

The publication of such a book has been earnestly solicited by individuals in various parts of the Church. The Psalms and Hymns contained in the "Social Psalmist," are selected wholly from the Assembly's Collection as now used in our churches. The tunes are from the larger book published by the Board, entitled, "The Presbyterian Psalmist." The Psalms and Hymns have been arranged on pages opposite to such tunes as are suitable to be employed in singing them. The several indices appended add much to the convenience and value of the book.

My Mother; with engravings, printed in oil colours. Price 25 cents. 6000 copies.

This is a pretty publication for the very small children. The rhymes contained in it have long been familiarly known in the nursery, and we would not wonder if many a full grown man and woman were to drop a tear over reminiscences of the past, as he reads those simple lessons of affection towards "My Mother." The coloured engravings are well executed.

NEW 12mo. TRACTS.

How Much shall I Give. 12mo. pp. 92. Price 10 and 15 cents. 6000 copies.

This volume is composed of four separate tracts. I. The duty of giving away a stated proportion of our income. By the Rev. William Arthur, A. M. II. Systematic Benevolence. By the Rev. D. V. Smock. III. Address on Systematic Benevolence, by the General Assembly to the Ministers and Churches under its care. IV. The Great Giver. By the Rev. W. S. Plummer, D. D. He who asks in sincerity, "How much shall I give?" not meaning, "How little may I give?" will be at no loss to know his duty after perusing this tract.

My Own Primer; or, First Lessons in Spelling and Reading. Prepared for the Board of Publication. Small 12mo. pp. 48. Price 5 cents. 3000 copies.

The publication of a little work of this kind, very elementary and very cheap, has often been requested by the colporteurs of the Board. It is now issued in a neat and attractive style, with a considerable number of wood cuts throughout. It contains a great variety of matters very important for children to learn, and above all, much that will tend to draw their thoughts towards God, eternity, and redemption by Christ.

Truth in the Household, a Sermon preached by appointment before the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, at Lexington, Kentucky, May 28, 1857, on behalf of the Assembly's Board of Publication. By the Rev. Joseph B. Stratton, D. D., of Natchez, Miss. 12mo. pp. 35. Price 3 cents. 3000 copies.

This sermon was greatly admired at the time it was preached, and by direction of the General Assembly is now offered to the public.

No. 197. The Worship of the Presbyterian Church. Extracted from "Presbyterianism, the truly Primitive and Apostolical constitution of the Church of Christ." By Samuel Miller, D. D. pp. 34. 2000 copies.

All who are familiar with the admirable volume from which this tract is taken, will rejoice to see the chapter on the Worship of the Presbyterian Church printed in this form, so convenient for general and for gratuitous distribution.

No. 198. Before and After Church. Written for the Board. By a Country Pastor. pp. 8. 2000 copies.

The reproofs and exhortations of this tract are aimed at a practice prevalent at many of our churches, especially country churches, for persons to collect in groups about the doors, or in the near vicinity, to indulge in general conversation. Many urgent reasons are assigned for the discontinuance of this practice. The truth is presented in a pointed and solemn manner.

No. 199. Why are you not a Christian? Written for the Board of Publication. By the Rev. James N. Lewis, Wytheville, Va. pp. 16. 2000 copies.

An excellent tract, direct, pointed, and searching, on a highly important subject. It deserves to be circulated in every part of the land.

No. 200. O! Don't Swear. 4 pp. 2000 copies.

No. 201. Let go that Stern-line. 8 pp. 2000 copies.

No. 202. The Duty of Dedicating our Sons to God, for the Gospel Ministry. By the Rev. M. W. Jacobus, D. D. Published by request of the Synod of Pittsburgh. 12 pp. 2000 copies.

The above tracts need but to be read to secure the approbation of every lover of truth and godliness.

The Presbyterian Family Almanac, for 1858. 12mo. pp. 48. With many wood-cuts. Price 6 cents, or $4.00 per 100. 30,000 copies.

THE PRESBYTERIAN SOCIAL PSALMODIST.

It was stated in the last Annual Report, that a work bearing the above title was in the hands of the stereotypers, and would soon be issued. This was done early in the last year, and seems to have met with very general acceptance among the churches, as well adapted to use in family worship, in social prayer-meetings, and in the lecture-room.

THE CONFESSION OF FAITH IN GERMAN.

The Confession of Faith has been translated into the German language by one of our pastors in the city of New York, who has peculiar qualifications for such a work. After undergoing careful examination by competent judges, the translation has been published, and the Board is now ready to furnish them wherever needed, and to any extent.

The whole subject of German literature has been repeatedly brought before the Publishing Committee, and while there are peculiar difficulties around the subject, they are ready to press forward as rapidly as is practicable in furnishing, in their own tongue, to our German population, such works as may seem best adapted to enlighten and bless their souls. Several small publications in German are now in course of preparation for the press.

THE SAILOR'S COMPANION.

The Board desires to call the attention of the General Assembly, and of the Church, to a little volume recently issued by it, entitled "The Sailor's Companion." It will be found to be admirably adapted to benefit those who "go down to the sea in ships." We trust that all who live in seaport towns, or have intercourse with the hardy and brave sons of the deep, will, for the sake of their souls, endeavour to place this volume in their hands.

JACOBUS'S NOTES ON THE GOSPELS.

During the past year, the Board has succeeded in making an arrangement with the author and former publishers of these valuable volumes, whereby it will be enabled to keep them constantly on hand; together with the accompanying "Questions." The great acceptance which these "Notes" have found in every part of our land, and the high praise bestowed upon them by our most eminent pastors and biblical scholars, assure the Board that the Church will rejoice in this arrangement. To Sabbath-school Teachers and Bible Classes, as well as to pastors, they offer invaluable aid, and we trust the day is near, when they will be universally substituted for other and less safe expository works, heretofore largely relied upon.

SABBATH-SCHOOL BOOKS.

In accordance with the repeated directions of the General Assembly, the Board has continued to publish works for juvenile reading, and especially for use in Sabbath-school libraries. A considerable proportion of the Board's publications for the past year have been of this description. Many of them are original works from the pens of able writers, male and female, in various parts of the country. Some of our most eminent ministers have felt it both a duty and a privilege to present and illustrate gospel truth through books prepared for the young. Several female writers have furnished excellent contributions to the Sabbath-school library. We rejoice to perceive increasing evidence that the juvenile books published by the Board within the last few years, are becoming more and more popular, and are sought after increasingly in every section of the Church. Thus encouraged, the Board will continue, as fast as may be found practicable, and as works of decided merit can be secured, to enlarge its issues in this department. It is also desirous as rapidly as possible to furnish all needful facilities and apparatus for Sabbath-school and Bible Class instruction. A good beginning has already been made by furnishing a variety of Catechisms, Question-books, and Commentaries.

THE HOME AND FOREIGN RECORD.

It is with sincere regret and concern that the Board is obliged to report, that the Home and Foreign Record, instead of increasing its subscription-list, has fallen off during the past year. The number reported as published a year ago was 19,000 copies. That number has since declined to 17,500, precisely the same as was reported in 1856. How far this has been an effect of the recent pecuniary difficulties so generally experienced, the coming year will show. Notwithstanding this discouraging fact, the Board, with the consent of the other Boards, has taken measures to make it, if possible, still more attractive. And to facilitate its use, the expense has recently been incurred, of having all the numbers cut and stitched.

We would here reiterate the conviction expressed in former years, that the interest felt in any particular congregation in the benevolent operations of our Church, must depend largely upon the extent to which the Record is circulated and read in that congregation. And we would once more and very earnestly solicit the hearty coöperation of pastors and sessions in securing a wide circulation for the paper among the members and families of their respective churches.

THE SABBATH-SCHOOL VISITOR.

The circulation of the Sabbath-school Visitor has largely increased during the past year. The number of subscribers reported to the last Assembly was 47,000. The present number is 54,000, being an increase of 9,000 within the past twelvemonth. Improvements have been made in the paper, typography, and pictorial illustrations. The Board receives constant and pleasing evidence that the Visitor has a strong and increasing hold on the affections of the youth in every section of our widely-extended Zion, and is anxious to do all in its power to justify and increase the growing favour with which this important paper is regarded.

II. THE DEPARTMENT OF DISTRIBUTION.

1. SALES AT THE PUBLISHING-HOUSE.

The sales made at the Publishing-house in Philadelphia during the past year have been 191,993 volumes. This is a decrease of 1583 volumes from the sales of the year preceding. The sales of tracts during the past year have amounted to 706,963, being an increase of 229,522 pages on the sales of the preceding year. The slight decrease in the sale of volumes, or rather the fact that there has not been a large advance on the sales of previous years, is wholly owing to the unexampled financial troubles of the past fall and winter, the effects of which have been severely felt by every publishing-house in the country. It is a matter for astonishment and gratitude that we are not obliged to report a far greater temporary decrease in the sales.

2. DISTRIBUTIONS BY GRANT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Executive Committee, in response to appeals made to it, has during the year granted,

To Sabbath-schools,	-	-	2206 volumes,
“ Feeble churches,	-	-	390 “
“ Humane and other institutions,	-	-	315 “
“ Ministers,	-	-	151 “
“ Individuals for gratuitous distribution,	-	-	662 “
<hr/>
Total,	-	-	3724
Pages of tracts granted,	-	-	246,395

Although these grants seem to be small even in the aggregate, they have carried strength and encouragement to many a struggling mission Sabbath-school, or needy minister of the gospel. Would that the means at the command of the Board for this purpose were ample enough to enable it during the coming years to make its grants many times larger! These grants are all made from a small distribution fund placed in its possession for that purpose by generous Christian individuals. To those who have money to employ in doing good, we commend this channel for their benefactions.

3. DISTRIBUTION BY COLPORTAGE.

In this great and growing department of its work, the Board finds high cause for thankfulness and encouragement. It is a work of truly Christian beneficence, carrying to thousands and hundreds of thousands in every part of our land, and putting in their hands that pure and blessed truth which is able to make them wise unto salvation.

This, like every other department of Christian beneficence, has been affected by the commercial difficulties of the past fall and winter. This has been the case not only in regard to the receipts for the Colportage Fund, but also in the indisposition to buy books, widely prevalent among the people visited by our colporteurs. From every quarter of the wide-spread field occupied, they report that during the last half of the year there was so generally felt either a disposition or necessity for economizing, as very largely to prevent the sale of the publications carried by them. To this wholly is attributable the fact that the sale of books by colporteurs instead of showing an advance on that of former years, exhibits on the contrary a slight diminution. It will be seen, however, that in the gratuitous distribution of volumes, and in the number of families visited and prayed with, more has been accomplished than in any preceding year. It thus appears that while in its commercial aspects the work has been depressed, in its missionary and benevolent aspects it has exceeded the work of any former year.

The number of colporteurs in commission during the year under review has been 263, being an increase of 9. During the months of the last summer, the Board had about 40 colporteurs in the field more than during the same months of the previous year. This large increase would, during any ordinary state of affairs, have been maintained in the field up to the present time, but the sudden and serious diminution of the receipts for colportage, has compelled the Board, after much hesitation and with extreme reluctance, to enter upon a course of retrenchment, and allow many colporteurs to retire from the work. So soon as the balance of arrears which still stands against our Colportage Fund can be wiped out, the Board is anxious at once to resume its plans for enlargement in this good and great enterprise.

The number of volumes sold by colporteurs during the year, has been 123,924, being a decrease of 655 volumes.

The pages of tracts distributed during the past year were 1,555,469. This is an apparent diminution of 584,910 pages on the year preceding. This diminution is, however, only apparent, a large quantity of tracts having been sent out near the close of the previous year, which were largely distributed after the commencement of the time now reviewed.

The number of volumes gratuitously distributed by colporteurs has this year been 17,905, an increase of 876 volumes on the number mentioned in the last report.

The number of families visited by colporteurs has this year been 119,685, being an increase of 5,503 over the visits reported last year.

Considering the peculiarly adverse circumstances of the year, we may well rejoice that in this great work the Board has been enabled to go forward to the attainment of results which compare so well with the years of previous prosperity and enlargement. Twenty-nine States and Territories have been traversed, and received larger or smaller supplies of the publications of the Board, besides the British Provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Canada East and Canada West. Increased quantities of these books and tracts have during the year been sent to California, Oregon, and Washington Territory, as well as to Kansas, Nebraska, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Arkansas, Texas, and other distant portions of the Union. Hundreds of thousands have received messages of eternal life, and the voice of exhortation, prayer, and praise has been lifted up through this instrumentality in very many places where such a voice was never heard before.

The Synods of Pittsburgh, Allegheny, and Mississippi, have certain colportage arrangements managed under a synodical supervision. We have received no report of colportage work done within the bounds of those Synods, or of money given for the cause, and are obliged to repeat the regrets of former years, that we are consequently unable to present to the Assembly a complete exhibit of what our entire Church has done for this cause during the past year.

The Synod of Virginia, which has likewise in past years acted through synodical arrangements, at its annual meeting in October last, resolved to abolish these arrangements and henceforth conduct its colportage work in connection with the Board and under its management. In future years, the reports of that Synod will therefore be made through this Board of Publication in its Annual Reports.

TOTAL OF DISTRIBUTION.

Adding together the above items, we obtain as the total of volume distribution, accomplished during the year, the following aggregate :

Sales at the Publishing-house,	-	-	191,993	volumes.
Sales by Colporteurs,	-	-	123,924	"
Given by Colporteurs,	-	-	17,905	"
Granted by the Executive Committee,			3,724	"

Total,	-	-	-	-	337,546	volumes.
--------	---	---	---	---	---------	----------

being an increase of 636 volumes over the circulation of the preceding year.

The circulation of tracts has been as follows :

Sales at the Publishing-house,	-	-	706,963	pages.
Distributed by Colporteurs,	-	-	1,555,469	"
Granted by the Executive Committee,	-		246,395	"

Total,	-	-	-	-	2,508,827	pages.
--------	---	---	---	---	-----------	--------

being a decrease, for reasons already explained, of 271,575 pages.

The following Table, prepared by the Superintendent of Colportage, will show the details of the work of the year.

III. DEPARTMENT OF SUSTENTATION.

THE TREASURER'S REPORT.

The Treasurer's Report presents an aggregate of receipts for the year of $126,960.28. This is an increase of $7639.25 over the receipts the preceding year. The total of expenditures has been $106,801.68, leaving a balance in the Treasurer's hands on the first day of March, 1858, of $20,158.60. In regard to this unusual balance in hand, it may be remarked that it is owing largely to the fact that it was deemed only prudent during the late monetary crisis to restrain the publishing operations and expenditures of the Board, and to make special exertions to gather in its available resources. The crisis having now been happily passed through, and the Board having resumed in full its work of publishing, the balance here reported will speedily be called for in the progress of that work.

The amount received from sales of books, tracts, and Sabbath-School Visitor, has been $80,842.86, being a decrease of $6581.52 on the sales of the previous year. The causes of this decrease have already been sufficiently adverted to.

THE COLPORTAGE FUND.

The Board would here reiterate what has been mentioned in previous reports, that there are really in its hands and intrusted to its management two concerns, in many respects distinct and independent. The first of these is a publishing concern, conducted upon strictly commercial principles, and sustained exclusively by its own profits. The other is the colportage enterprise, conducted on purely missionary and benevolent principles, and wholly dependent on the contributions of the churches and of pious individuals.

The entire amount received for colportage during the past year has been $21,369.76. This is a decrease upon the receipts of the preceding year of $3453.86. It is to be observed, however, that this decrease is not attributable to a falling off in the receipts from the churches, but in those from legacies and miscellaneous sources. While the church contributions of the previous year amounted to $15,389.25, they have, during the last year, notwithstanding the unpropitiousness of the times, reached the sum of $17,150.92; showing a gain from this source of $1761.67. While, however, the receipts from legacies and miscellaneous sources during the year previous were $9434.37, they have last year been only $4218.84.

Owing to this large decrease in the latter item of receipts for colportage, together with the fact that the year was commenced with a balance against the Fund of $2887.77, the Colportage Fund was overdrawn on the 1st day of March, 1858, in the unusual sum of $8758.46.

It is a matter for sincere gratulation, that throughout such a year the churches have continued not only to maintain but to increase their former contributions to the Colportage Fund. We find in this fact most pleasing evidence that this good and growing cause has taken a firm hold upon the affections of God's people, and has awakened an interest which is sure to spread until it shall pervade our whole beloved Zion. As yet, however, we cannot help lamenting that many of our churches, and even many Presbyteries, furnish so little aid in carrying on this noble work. And left as we now are at the beginning of another year, when the work to be done and the opportunities for doing it are expanding before us and inviting us forward, while large and cumbersome arrearages are seriously retarding our progress, the Board cannot help appealing earnestly through the Assembly to the churches in every part of the land for speedy, enlarged and liberal aid for its Colportage operations.

SABBATH-SCHOOL CONTRIBUTIONS.

The Board cannot refrain from expressing special gratification at the increasing number of contributions received from our Sabbath-schools. This fact is regarded as affording a delightful evidence that the children and youth of our Church are increasingly taught to love the Boards of the Church, and to prefer making these the channels for their benevolent deeds to any voluntary and irresponsible organizations. We trust the day is not far distant when from the Sabbath-school of every church in our connection, a rill, however small, of benevolent contribution shall flow into the Treasury of each of our Boards. We are fully persuaded that in the objects for which these several Boards are labouring, our children and youth may, if trained aright, find as appropriate and as interesting fields for their early efforts, as in those presented from any other quarter whatever. But our Church in all its length and breadth ought to be aware of the fact, and every pastor ought to have his attention turned to it, that if the children and youth have their interest excited elsewhere, their affections and their early contributions diverted to objects and by channels lying beyond the control of our own beloved Church, it will be in vain for us to expect them, when they arrive at adult years and become heads of families and even officers in our churches, to become, through some marvellous conversion of preference, steady, systematic and attached contributors to our own Boards. If the Church would have a coming generation of zealous, generous and enlightened Presbyterians, Christians, ready to sustain efficiently her own organizations, then must that generation be trained from their early years to such enlightened and active coöperation. The Board of Publication would therefore earnestly solicit pastors, elders, and Sabbath-school superintendents to extend to it, together with the other Boards, their aid in securing the active coöperation of their Sabbath-schools. We do through them invite the children of the Church to aid us in sustaining Colporteurs among the needy and the destitute. And we invite them to aid in the most appropriate work of furnishing the Board with means to send Sabbath-school libraries gratuitously to mission or other needy Sabbath-schools, in various portions of the land. Great numbers of applications for such libraries are sent us: to whom can we more appropriately look for means to grant them, than to the children and youth of our more favoured Sabbath-schools?

AGENCIES.

It is only needful to say in regard to this subject, that the Board has persevered another year in dispensing with all paid collecting agents. Yet it has passed through the late season of extraordinary pecuniary trial with only such drawbacks as have been mentioned in this Report. This fact leads the Board to believe that our pastors are, to a most encouraging extent, both able and ready to take this work of securing and forwarding the contributions of their churches, into their own hands, and thus entirely supersede the former seeming necessity for employing such special and expensive agencies. Would all our pastors only do as many of their brethren have begun to do, large and powerful indeed for good would be the annual receipts into the treasuries of all the Boards.

APPENDIX.

STATEMENT OF RECEIPTS
BY THE
BOARD OF PUBLICATION,
FOR ITS COLPORTAGE FUND,

For twelve months—from March 1, 1857, to March 1, 1858.

The work of publishing books and tracts is carried forward upon a capital contributed, several years ago, for that specific purpose, to which it is wholly and sacredly devoted. The churches are called on to contribute nothing for the publishing department of the Board. But as nothing can be drawn away from the publishing department for other uses, the Board is obliged to depend wholly on the contributions of the churches for the supply of its Colportage Fund. These contributions, therefore, are indispensable for the following uses, viz.

1. To pay the salaries and expenses incident to Colportage.
2. To pay for the large amount of books and tracts gratuitously distributed by colporteurs.

Just in proportion, and only in proportion as the churches annually contribute to this Fund, is the Board able to do these things.

The following table will exhibit the receipts of the two past years.

* The Synods of Pittsburgh and Allegheny have under their joint control a Synodical Board of Colportage, to which the contributions of their churches are chiefly sent. (See this Annual Report, page 20.) As the contributions sent to this Synodical Board have not been reported to the Board of Publication, the blanks opposite the names of their churches cannot be filled in this statement. It is very desirable that all Synodical and Presbyterial Boards and Committees of Colportage should report annually to the Board of Publication on the 1st of March, so that the church may have a complete view of what is done through all her borders for this important cause.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1858.

After the opening of the General Assembly in New Orleans, La., the following Standing Committee on the Board of Publication was announced by the Moderator, viz.—Rev. W. H. Mitchell, D. D., Rev. John H. Rice, Rev. John McKinney, Rev. John Eagleson, Rev. R. A. Criswell. Ruling Elders—William E. James, J. H. McCampbell, S. W. Penn, James E. Caruthers.

On Friday morning, May 8th, according to an order of the day, the Annual Report was presented by the Corresponding Secretary of the Board, Rev. William E. Schenck, and referred by the Assembly to the above Committee.

On Thursday morning, May 13th, the Standing Committee brought in their Report. The Corresponding Secretary addressed the Assembly in regard to the operations and prospects of the Board, and the Report, after discussion, was adopted, as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly recognizes and commends the Board as an efficient and honoured instrumentality in counteracting the pernicious effects of licentious and corrupt literature, and in disseminating, through the waste places of our Zion, the seeds of sound theology and of vital piety, which doubtless will ultimately produce, in the hands of God's people, thirty, sixty, and even a hundredfold.

Resolved, 2. That it is subject matter for devout gratitude to God, that although within the past year an unprecedented commercial embarrassment pervaded the country, and brought sorrow and penury to the homes of thousands, the Lord put into the hearts of the members of our churches a spirit of more than ordinary benevolence, in consequence of which (although there was a diminution in the miscellaneous receipts) the amount of church collections for the Colportage Fund was larger than had been that of any former year; and that this unexpected and happy result was accomplished without the payment of a single cent for collecting agents.

Resolved, 3. That it affords the Assembly much gratification to learn that notwithstanding the aforesaid convulsion, the Board, by the discreet and prudent management of its resources during the crisis, not only paid all its pecuniary obligations in the publishing department, but also increased its usefulness by the publication and gratuitous distribution of a greater number of books and tracts than it had published in any previous year.

Resolved, 4. That it gives the Assembly pleasure to learn that the Board, as fast as circumstances justify, are publishing evangelical works in the German language, suitable to the wants of the German population.

Resolved, 5. That the humble and self-denying colporteur is doing God's work, and deserves the sympathy of God's people; and that, as he visits from house to house the Lord's poor, with Christ's love in his heart, and the books of the Board in his hand, he is effectually aiding the missionary of the cross in diffusing Christian light and knowledge where darkness and ignorance prevail.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly earnestly urge on the churches the importance of increasing their contributions to colportage, in order to enable the Board not only to pay off the arrears which during the past year necessarily accrued, but also to expand its operations in a degree commensurate with the demands of the Church.

Resolved, 7. That the Assembly expresses its heartfelt gratification at the laudable and successful effort which the Board has made to publish works for Sunday-school libraries, and that this body, believing as it does that the books published are admirably adapted to the wants of children, would impress on the minds of ministers and members, that it is their duty to purchase and circulate the books of the Board, rather than those published by any Societies not connected with our beloved Church, and that whenever Sabbath-schools have funds to expend for the purchase of libraries to present to feeble churches in various parts of the land, the Board should have decided preference.

The following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, Hymns No. 336 and No. 454, of the Assembly's collection, are one and the same, therefore,

Resolved, That the Board of Publication be authorized and directed to replace Hymn No. 336 with some other, not now found in the book, of the same typographical dimensions, and of evangelical sentiment and decided poetic merit.

The Annual Sermon on behalf of the Board was preached in the First Church of New Orleans, on Tuesday evening, May 11th, by the Rev. S. J. P. Anderson, D. D., of St. Louis, on 2 Cor. x. 10: "For his letters (say they) are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible." The Assembly afterwards adopted a resolution, thanking Dr. Anderson for his sermon, and requesting him to furnish to the Board a copy for publication.

The next Annual Sermon, to be preached before the Assembly at Indianapolis, Ind., in May, 1859, will be delivered by the Rev. Thomas V. Moore, D. D., of Richmond, Va., or by the Rev. Professor Samuel J. Wilson, of Allegheny City, Pa., as his alternate.
